

I support the FISTS petition as it will strengthen the amateur radio service's ability to provide emergency communications under severe conditions.